STATEMENT OF Elizabeth A. Fields TAKEN AT Fort Drum, NY DATED 2011/01/18

Q: Explain it?

A: ISG's main role was to talk to the senior NCOs and then it was their job to relay it to the soldiers.

Q: When was the next issue you knew about Manning?

A: End of January SPC Padgett was counseling Manning again and we heard some screaming and the NCO went into the room. Manning had thrown a table and cracked a computer screen.

Q: What happened to Manning?

A: We all wrote sworn statements and Manning stayed in the SCIF because MSG Adkins said that we need personnel.

Q: Who did you give the Sworn Statement to?

A: CPT Lim

Q: Do you know about the decision to put Manning on day shift?

A: That was the time I had changed jobs and I just heard about it.

Q: Did MAJ Clausen give any guidance on bringing CDs and DVDs into the SCIF?

A: Initially they weren't allowed into the SCIF but then they slacked off and they were brought into the SCIF so they could play music on the computers.

Q: Was it simply accepted?

A: Yes

Q: How did you ensure accountability of media?

A: There was no accountability of media.

Q: Did any unit training while at 2/10 focus on SCIF operations?

A: No

Q: At some point in the deployment the S6 found games and music on the shared drive what happened.

A: There was an email sent out to delete all media and if you didn't they would delete it themselves. So what soldiers would do is hide it on the desk tops.

Q: So do you feel what the chain of command did was successful?

A: No because they didn't follow up later

Q: Above the S2 section was MAJ Clausen next to CPT Lim and then CW2 Ehresman?

A: CW2 Ehresman's role was to get tasks from CPT Lim and then he would give them to the team.

Q: Would you describe CW2 Ehresman's responsibility technical or leadership?

A: Technical

Q: Why?

A: Because the leadership was taken on by MSG Adkins for NCOs and CPT Lim was in charge of the officers

Q: Did MSG Adkins pull the responsibility to his NCOs?

A: No he disseminated the responsibility.

Q: Did SSG Balonek have supervisory responsibility of Soldiers?

A: No

Q: Did the environment improve after CPT Lim took over?

A: No

Q: What kind of leadership did COL Walters have over the section?

A: None

Q: Did COL Miller see the Soldiers issues?

A: No not that I am aware of.

Q: Did the ISG see the issues with the Soldiers

A: No

Q: So what went wrong?

A: There was a lack of leadership across the board. We should have all seen the issues. As leaders we should have pushed harder from the NCOs to the Officers. The perception was that we needed Soldiers. MAJ Clausen allowed the information to flow too freely.

Q: Is there anything else you would like to add?

A: No
